FACES of The Summit

ROSE LIBERMAN
“I have gone through a lot and I have learned a lot.”
After Germany invaded Poland, all Jewish people lived in the ghetto and had to wear a yellow Star of David on our left arm. The SS made us sweep the streets and do other chores. We were taken away from our families and I never saw my family again. Life was hard. In May 1945 we were liberated, I was 17. I just turned 84 in June 2018. I live in The Summit along with four other survivors. We are still honorable survivors that I will forever forget.

KATHERINE SCHARHON
“I love baking!”

JOYCE ROSLIN
“Follow your dreams.”

SYLVIA SLONIM HAYDEN
“Life is a miracle.”

MICHAELA LOBEL
“Yo Momma, you’re gonna be alright!”

HANNA ADLER
“Go with the flow, you never know what life sends you.”

BARBARA BUSH
“Oh Sweetie, let me tell you…”
When I married Harry and took his last name I became Barbara Bush. Well, my name became President and Barbara Bush. That was hard for me. I had thought you can’t imagine how many times have called me when I tried to make dinner reservations.

BARBARA ROSE
“Participate, try new things.”
I am an important free harp of my life. My friend showed me before turned 18. “Barbara, participate, try new things.” So I followed her advice with no regret.
